PERSONAL ASSESSMENT

Appraise yourself in the following functions of ministry:

Preaching In relationship to your ministry, how important is your preaching?

My preaching is very important and one of my strongest traits.

Teaching What methods do you use? PowerPoints, personal experience, relevant examples.

What is your target group? Adults and church leaders.

Evangelism What methods do you use? Relationships, using oportunites when they happen, cell groups, bible studies.

How effective have you been? I have directly won 4 souls, and have indirectly continued the evangelism of many.

Visitation In relationship to your ministry, what importance do you give it?

I have visited many people in the hospital, convalescent homes, homes of visitors and members to pray. Very important.

Counseling Evaluate your abilities: Many people have come to me for counseling for different issues, from familial, financial, and spiritual. I have not kept track of the many times. I give bible truths and personal experiences when people ask.

Administration List the type of administration in which you have been involved: Administration of the church cell groups including trainings and evalutaions, midweek services including programing of presenters, lesson content and refreshments, baptism cycle, and new members.

Rank these six functions in the order you feel most competent.

1. Preaching

4. Evangelism

2. Teaching

5. Counseling

3. Administration

6. Visitation

How long have you served in these functions in your present ministry? 1 year and 6 months in current position as leader of: midweek bible studies, baptism cycle, new membership, Assistant Pastor.

Describe your expectations and philosophy of team relationships and staff:

My philosophy is that this being the kingdom of God, we need to work together, be kind with each other and respect each other knowing that the people and the members are the most valuable thing in the church. The work should be shared, it should be done with excellence, and everybody has room to grow adnd perfect their ministry.

What is your understanding of plural leadership in the church? Please be specific commenting on the relationship authority, differences, functions, and responsibilities of the pastor and the elders.

We all need to be under an authority and we need to respect the jurisidction delegated to each leader.

Do you make a distinction between clergy and laity? Explain: Yes. The clergy needs to be an good example of a christian life and is held to a higher standard.

Do you believe there is a calling of God into the pastorate, and that it has an accompanying mantle of authority and anointing? Yes. The pastorate is a calling from God and it absolutely has spiritual authority and anointing over and for the congregation and souls.

I believe in the Bible's views on divorce and remarriage. Marriage is for the lifetime of the people. Divorce is acceptable in life-threatening relationship or with infidelity. The person who was faithful, can remarry as it says in Matthew 19:9.

What is your position on divorce and remarriage? _____

What is your view on divorced and remarried persons holding office, and/or teaching in the church?

Every couple's responsibility is to make their marriage work. When it comes to people in the ministry, there is a higher expectation of commitment. Deacons, ordained ministers and pastors should not be divorced. They should only remarry if the spouse dies.

What is the purpose of the Church? Please be specific. How does the pastor/ teacher help fulfill this purpose?

The church is the body of Christ. We are to evangelize all people independent of their race, nationality, and language. The church is to serve each other. The church is the bride of Christ and is to maintain itself in purity. The pastor's job is to guide the church to fulfill God's mission of evangelizing the world. 2 Corinthians 5:20

What is your view of missions, and in what ways should the church be involved?

Missions is one of the most important parts of the Apostolic Assembly because it takes the word to the lost. It is the fulfillment of the Matthew 28:19 commandment. The church should be completely involved in supporting financially, spiritually, and morally missions.

What do you think is your greatest personal strength? My greatest personal strength are my communication skills, I am able to express my messages from the pulpit effectively.

What do you think is your greatest personal weakness? My greatest personal weakness is dealing with kids and children's ministry.

List three things in which you have found the most satisfying in your present or most recent ministry.

1. I have found the preaching evangelistic messages to souls on friend days to be satisfying.
2. Being able to listen to people and making them feel that they are valued.
3. Watching brothers grow in their ministries and flourish as leaders.

Have you published any books, articles for professional journals, etc? If so list:

N/A

How do you spend your leisure time? I like to walk in the forest, drink coffee, and listen to jazz.

FINANCES

Do you have excessive debt that will burden your travels and hinder your ministry?

Do you have a budget that you live by and are comfortable with?

Are you willing and able to tithe into the Missions Department?

Has your income from ministry allowed you to meet your budget?

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS

Financial remuneration includes salary, housing allowance, major medical insurance coverage, and ministry expense reimbursement (auto, continuing education, books, and reference material, ministry contacts, etc.). The basic salary structure is based on the individual's need, the type of ministry (i.e. teaching God's Word) diligence or faithfulness.

Based on your present circumstances please state what you consider to be your financial needs to support your family. You may share what your present salary and financial conditions are if you wish.

I currently earn $44,000 a year and my wife earns $65,000 a year.

GUIDANCE

It is the intent of the National Missions Department to enhance and promote ministers and ministries that are currently involved in Apostolic churches and want to unify with like-minded ministries to promulgate the Gospel in America. It is our goal to bring ministers together for training, promotion, growth and the fulfillment of the commission of Christ. It is our effort to support one another in prayer, fellowship, ideas, resources and advancement. Our main focus is on spreading the Gospel, through preaching, teaching, prophetic and spiritual gifts, healing, signs, miracles and personal testimony.

You should arrive early to introduce yourself to the Pastor and pray for the service.

You should be friendly to the congregation, but should never exchange phone numbers, email, or addresses for future correspondence.

You should respect the Pastors request regarding sales of ministry items. (Media, books, etc.)

You should be respectful of the churches budget for your accommodations and dining choices.

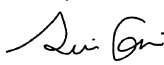

You should try to mirror the Pastor and his wife in personal convictions. (modesty)

Encourage the Pastor and his wife and the work they have been called to do.

| Is applicant submitted and supportive to you?              | Y | N |
| Does applicant work the altars?                            | Y | N |
| Is the applicant given to prayer, fasting and Bible Study? | Y | N |
- What is the applicant's strengths in ministry? Preacher, Teacher, Counselor
- What is the applicant's weakness in ministry? Due to limited proximity to Bro. Garcia cannot identify.

What do you suggest or plan to do to strengthen these weaknesses?

The National missions department will gain where our local church would suffer. David is a faithful man who has served and been a blessing to the saints of Fontana for many years. It will be great day for our church knowing we sent out the best of us into the field to reap a harvest for the Lord.

Give a brief synopsis of this ministry team and how they can be a blessing to a local church, district or any function. The Garcia family is a strong ministerial family that has great potential to support and assist in any capacity where the opportunity is afforded them.

---

Provide any information that could be a cause of concern or that would hinder this man from ministering in any Apostolic Assembly church. I have no concerns and trust that if it is the Lord's will, He will help them in every season.
